Rutgers University The State University of New Jersey

Rutgers, The State University, which began as a struggling colonial college before the Revolution, celebrated its Bicentennial Anniversary in 1966. Founded in 1766 by Dutch pioneers, Rutgers originally was called Queens College under a charter from King George III of England. The young college's existence was threatened by the Revolution, but growth followed that conflict, just as unprecedented expansion was experienced after the last World War.

Rutgers was given its present name in 1825, after generous gifts had been received from Colonel Rutgers, a New York philanthropist. Forty years later it was designated the Land Grant College of New Jersey, the liberal arts course was enlarged, and courses leading to bachelor degrees in agriculture and engineering were added.

New Jersey College for Women (renamed Douglass in 1955) was founded in 1918 and in 1945, all divisions of Rutgers were brought within the designation of the State University of New Jersey. The College of South Jersey, now known as Camden-Rutgers, joined the family in 1950 and Rutgers came under management of an 11-man Board of Governors as Rutgers, The State University, in 1955.

Under Dr. Mason W. Gross, Rutgers grew from approximately 3,500 students to 9,000 full-time undergraduates, including those at the newest branch, Livingston College. Dr. Gross was succeeded on Sept. 1, 1971 by Dr. Edward J. Bloustein, who has set his sights on Rutgers assuming a position of national leadership among urban universities. Effective September, 1972, Rutgers became co-educational.

At this time, the Rutgers football team is composed of students from five of the six undergraduate colleges in New Brunswick—Rutgers, Livingston, Pharmacy, Engineering and the Cook College, formerly the College of Agriculture and Environmental Sciences. Also in New Brunswick is Douglass, the Women's College.

1973 Travel Plans

Rutgers will make two of its longest football trips ever to meet two of its most formidable opponents this season in games at the Air Force Academy, Nov. 10, and at Tampa, Dec. 1.

Details of the trips:

Rutgers vs. Air Force Academy

Air transportation by United Airlines

Flight 5775 (charter)

Destination: Colorado Springs, Colorado;

Time of Departure: 8:30 a.m., Thursday, Nov. 8

Time of Return: 10:20 a.m., Sunday, Nov. 11

Lodging: Hotel Antlers Plaza.

Rutgers vs. Tampa

Air Transportation by National Airlines Jet

Destination: Tampa, Fla.

Time of Departure: 6 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 29

Time of Return: 6 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 2

Lodging: Causeway Inn South

Rutgers Training Camp

Rutgers will hold its pre-season practice at the Peddie School in Hightstown from Aug. 29 until Sept. 8. The Scarlet squad moves off campus for its early preparations for the first time since Harvey Harman took his candidates to the Harry Freedman Farm, Columbia, N. J., in 1955.

Establishing an off campus training base was necessitated by the razing of the Army barracks on the Camp Kilmer tract where the team was housed during the practice sessions in recent seasons.

TICKET PRICES

Regular season books (available until Sept. 7), $25.00; junior season book (high school age and under), $12.50. Home tickets $5.00, junior tickets $2.50. Away prices: Lehigh, $4.00; Princeton, $6.00; Connecticut, $4.00; Air Force, $6.00; Holy Cross, $5.00; Tampa, $6.00.

Where It All Began

As most football fans are aware, the first intercollegiate football game was played Nov. 6, 1869, in New Brunswick, between Rutgers and Princeton. Rutgers won that game, six goals to four.

In 1969, Rutgers and Princeton were joined by all the nation's colleges in celebrating the football Centennial. Under the direction of Athletic Director Al Twitchell and in conjunction with the N.C.A.A., a season-long, nation-wide celebration was held.

The anniversary was recognized by the issuance of a 6¢ commemorative stamp, some 350 colleges used "100" helmet and uniform insignia, a centennial medallion was coined and Barbara Specht of Texas Tech reigned as the Centennial Queen.

The Rutgers Coaching Staff

FRANK BURNS, Head Coach

Since taking over as head coach last January, Frank Burns has dedicated himself to making Rutgers a team which will catch the fancy of New Jersey fans. A Garden Stater himself, Frank hopes that Rutgers can make the citizenry proud this fall and signal the start of a new era.

Burns, himself, was involved in another period known as the "Golden Era" of Rutgers football. He was the quarterback in the 1945-48 period, leading his team to a record of 27-7. He threw 25 touchdown passes and set many records, since broken by his protégés.

Well known as an outstanding offensive coach, Burns served as offensive coordinator and associate head coach under John Bateman. One of the finest Rutgers quarterbacks in his own right, Burns helped develop Scarlet star passers Rich Policastro and Leo Gasienica, who combined to break most of his all-time Scarlet records.

Burns' previous coaching assignments at Rutgers include assistant freshman coach (1949-50); freshman coach (1953-54); varsity backfield coach (1955-56) and (1961-67). In between he served in 1951 and 1952 as head coach of Johns Hopkins, at the time one of the youngest head coaches in the nation at the age of 23, and following the 1956 season, Burns took over as head coach at Chatham, N. J. High School, a school which had not been represented in football for 25 years. He remained at Chatham four years, returning to Rutgers in 1961.

As an undergraduate at Rutgers, Burns was All-East for two years and received honorable mention on most All-America Teams. He played in the 1949 Shrine Game in San Francisco and was named the most valuable player in the Herald Tribune All-Star Game that summer. He was also a standout baseball catcher at Rutgers.

Burns played professional football briefly with the Jersey City Giants following his graduation.

A native of Roselle Park, Burns lives in Berkeley Heights with his three children, Frank Jr., a student at Nichols College, Thomas and Barbara. He is a widower.

ROBERT NASO, Defensive Coach

Bob Naso became defensive coordinator in 1968 after coaching the Scarlet freshmen for three seasons and then serving as defensive line coach beginning in 1964. Naso also serves as the head lacrosse coach and has compiled a 12-year record of 87-55-1. His 1972 team made the NCAA playoffs and his 1973 squad just missed repeating with a ninth-place national finish. As an undergraduate at Rutgers, Bob excelled in football and lacrosse, earning All-America honors as a stickman. He directs a co-ed sports camp, Golden Valley, during the summer.

WILLIAM J. SPERANZA, Offensive Backs

As a senior quarterback, Bill helped guide Rutgers to its only undefeated season in 1961 and in his last of four seasons as freshman coach, he led the 1967 frosh to a 5-0 mark. In 1968, Bill took charge of the defensive backs and his pass defenders had considerable success for five years. He now has guidance of the Scarlet offensive backs. Speranza, who coached for two years in his native Bethlehem, Pa., was an outstanding baseball catcher as a Rutgers student.

JAMES TAIGIA, Offensive Line

A teammate of Frank Burns during the late forties at Rutgers, Jim Taigia took charge of the Scarlet offensive line in 1968. Previously the former Scarlet guard coached at Piscataway, Hillside and Rahway High Schools during which time he was active as a basketball official. "Chief" played guard for the Scarlet in the 1947-49 period and is a Navy veteran.

PETER SAVINO, Defensive Backs

After three years on the freshman staff, Pete Savino has been promoted to the varsity where he's now in charge of the defensive backs. The one-time standout athlete at Perth Amboy High was a versatile performer for Rutgers, playing at quarterback, flanker and defensive halfback. Pete, a 1969 Scarlet grad, also serves as assistant lacrosse coach.

MIKE KIZIS, Assistant Coach

Mike Kizis is a former Rutgers football captain, a standout offensive tackle before graduating in 1971. Mike works with the tight ends and also assists in lacrosse, while doing graduate study.

TED COTTRELL, Defensive Line

A 1969 graduate of Delaware Valley College where he excelled as a linebacker, Ted Cottrell makes his debut at Rutgers in charge of the defensive line. Ted earned All-MAC honors three times and played two years of pro ball, with the Atlanta Falcons and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. He was an assistant football coach and head track coach at Delaware Valley for one season before his appointment here. Ted's home town is Chester, Pa.

PAUL MORAN, Junior Varsity Coach

A member of the football staff at Kentucky for two seasons, where he was assigned to the defensive line and linebackers, Paul Moran is a graduate of Central Connecticut State College and a native of Chicopee, Mass. Paul will coach the sub-varsity unit at Rutgers. He won All-East honors as a defensive tackle at his alma mater and served for two years as an assistant at the University of Connecticut.

JACK HOHNSTINE, Assistant Coach

A 1966 Rutgers graduate, Jack Hohnstine was assisted on the varsity staff for four seasons. His assignment is the flankers in addition to assisting with the JV unit.

Frederick E. Gruninger, *Director of Athletics

After accepting the position of acting Director of Athletics in January of 1973, Fred Gruninger set about to better acquaint the citizens of New Jersey with what "their" State University was about to do in athletics. He feels that a good start has been made to accomplish that and was pleased with the warm reception received throughout the Garden State.

Gruninger was assistant, then associate athletic director under Al Twitchell for nine years, starting in 1964, when he moved to the athletic administration after a five-year stint in the alumni relations department.

Gruninger is a 1953 Rutgers alumnus who played football and baseball as an undergraduate and later excelled in golf, turning professional for a brief period. Until last spring, when administrative duties intervened, he served as Rutgers golf coach and posted an outstanding record of 109-30-2.

A native of East Orange and a resident of Martinsville, Gruninger earned his master's degree from Rutgers in 1961. He served a number of years as a high school teacher and coach. He is married and the father of three children.

Donald Heilman, *Assistant Director

Bud Heilman combines duties as assistant athletic director and coordinator of recruiting. He joined the Rutgers staff in 1966 after six years as head football coach at Kutztown State and was line coach for five years. He is an alumnus of West Chester State.

Otto H. Hill, *Business Manager

A member of the Rutgers staff since 1947, Otto Hill was appointed business manager of athletics in 1961. A 1942 graduate of Rutgers, he served in the Army and Air Force during World War II returning to earn his master's degree in 1947. He was a football assistant through 1955 and served as freshman and later varsity swimming coach until 1961, when he assumed his present assignment.

Supporting Personnel

Faculty Representative, Mark E. Singley, professor of agricultural engineering; Ticket Manager, Mrs. Gertrude M. Skladany; Team Physician, Dr. Hyman B. Copleman; Team Dentist, Dr. Joel Fertig; Head Trainer, Andrew Sivess; Custodian of Equipment, John Powers.

ED JONES

JJ JENNINGS

Rutgers 1973 Honor Players

Jim "JJ" Jennings heads the list of players who are expected to lead Rutgers this fall. The senior running back is the Scarlet's best All-American prospect in 11 years.

Others, based upon their past contributions and opinions of the coaching staff, expected to be among the leading players are Andy Tighe, an All-East guard selection last year, and two defensive stalwarts, Ed Jones, a corner back, and Steve Allen, a linebacker. Tighe is a 6-1, 235-pounder whose speed and pulling ability are well recognized. Jones is a remarkable athlete whose 1972 activity consisted of three plays in pre-season practice. He is now completely recovered from a shoulder operation. Allen, a defensive tackle opponents used to shy away from, now is hoping to fill the void at linebacker.

Jennings holds Rutgers records for for most yards in a season (1,262), most carries in a game (40) and most carries in a season (287). He probably will claim all rushing marks before 1973 ends.

Almost every adjective a coach can apply to a running back fits Jennings. He is not a "burner," breakaway threat, but seldom is caught from behind. But he has powerful legs which enable him to break tackles, is durable, as witness his 25-plus carries per game, catches well, blocks, can punt and has a great attitude.

A physical education student, Jennings gets similar raves from baseball coach Matt Bolger, for whom he caught or played the outfield and hit .327 and .313 in the last two seasons.

Jennings was a unanimous All-East back, was ninth nationally in rushing and ranks first in the East among the returnees.

The Forecast

BURNS

Although there are several other questionable areas, and the schedule is very difficult, the success of the 1973 Rutgers football team very likely will be determined by how effective the quarterback(s) will be.

The kicking game (punting and placement) and depth at running back are unsettled. But most other positions are manned by competent athletes, including a reasonable amount of substitutes.

It is at quarterback, however, that a decision has yet to be made and Coach Frank Burns and his staff, installing an attack which will lean heavily on the option, are hopeful of deciding that issue at the earliest possible moment when fall drills get underway.

Rutgers, with an experienced and strong line, has confidence in its running ability. The passing attack, however, which was directed so successfully last year by Leo Gasienica (now of the Giants), must prove itself. In any case, it will be a different style of attack, featuring play-action and option passes rather than the dropbacks.

Virtually deadlocked for honors when spring practice concluded were senior Gary Smolyn, the safety a year ago, and John Piccirillo, who was the backup quarterback as a sophomore last year. Not out of the picture by any means was another junior, Steve Hav-ran. Smolyn shared quarterback during the first half of 1971, but lost out to Leo Gasienica at the time. He is an excellent option runner. Piccirillo is short (5-9) but quick and is a good passer. None of the quarterbacks has had much game experience.

The Scarlet's premier player figures to be Jim "JJ" Jennings, a candidate for All-American honors. A bulldozing runner, Jennings was ninth nationally in rushing a year ago. Other standouts include guard Andy Tighe, like Jennings an All-East selection last year; Steve Allen, formerly a tackle but now a linebacker; and Ed Jones, a brilliant corner back.

There will be 28 lettermen on hand, more beef in the line than any Rutgers team has had since 1961, and the squad would seem to be less vulnerable to injuries. A number of good sophomore linemen are available to back up the veterans.

If a freshman is to make the varsity, the best chance would be as a punter, field goal kicker, or possibly at defensive tackle.

"To me, attitude will be the all-decisive factor," Burns said. "These players have been outstanding in that respect. We have a lot of ability and I'm aware of the very difficult schedule we face. But I'm confident that we're going to have a good year."

All-Americans

Four Rutgers players have been selected as All-Americans by recognized national agencies. They are Paul Robeson, Homer Hazel, Bill Austin and Alex Kroll.

Robeson, an end, was selected in 1917 and 1918 to become the first Rutgers player so honored.

Hazel, who died in 1968, was selected in 1923 and 1924, the first time as an end, the next year at fullback.

It wasn't until 1958 that another Rutgers player was selected. Austin, who played tailback in the single wing, was selected 14 years ago at a halfback position.

And in 1961, when Rutgers completed a 9-0 season, Kroll was named to the center spot, earning first-team ranking on seven of the nine nationally-named teams.

The Leading Scarlet Knights ENDS

DOUG DAVIS, senior. Originally a guard, Doug went to tackle early in his sophomore season and played there the full year. He has since been victimized by injuries, could not regain his starting berth last year and was tried as a tight end late . . . Did well there in the spring . . . Shot putter for track team . . . Could play at any of three spots on the offensive line . . . Human Communications student.

BOB DILLARD, senior. A two-year starter at defensive end, Bob has mastered his play against much bigger men, relying on superior speed . . . Has added 15 pounds for his senior season and hopes to retain his quickness . . . One of squad's most enthusiastic men, takes defeats hard . . . Wants to play in a Bowl game . . . New idea to attend law school . . . Livingston student and Political Science major.

KEN HALL, senior. The leading receiver in two spring games, Ken has played in the shadow of Larry Christoff for the last two years and now appears ready to come into his own . . . Felt capable as a receiver, has grown in strength to help himself as blocker . . . Feels his "whole career" is packed into this season . . . A Business Administration major.

TOM HOLMES, sophomore. Tom moved up from the frosh squad for the season's eighth game and played a reserve role for the rest of the year . . . The second Scarlet frosh to play since 1954 . . . Earned letter and should push starting defensive ends as sophomore . . . Majors in Engineering.

DWIGHT LIPSCOMB, sophomore. The first freshman to play varsity ball since 1954, Dwight got his first start against Columbia and recovered a Lion fumble which set up the eventual winning field goal . . . Has the instinct for being where the ball is . . . Very articulate . . . Intercept against Lafayette . . . Thinking about a future in real estate . . . a Business Administration student.

TACKLES

MARTY BENANTE, senior. A two-year letterman, Marty has been one of the defensive cogs in a rotating system of interior linemen . . . Picked up the defensive hard hit award for the Lehigh game last season . . . Was stymied by unexplained stomach problems and hopes they are gone for good . . . Relies on finesse . . . Agricultural Business major.

CISCO GARAY, sophomore. Impressive quickness for his size and speed, Cisco is a Livingston student who played club football last year and won selection to the league's all star team . . . A tight end in high school, he's still learning the defensive tackle role but may be tough to keep out of the lineup . . . 6-4, 250 and 20 years old, a comer for sure . . . Majors in Liberal Arts.

HAROLD GOLDEN, sophomore. "Goldboy" came out of nowhere during spring practice and moved quickly up the defensive tackle ladder, culminating the camp with a determined and recognized effort in the spring game . . . Could be the sleeper who will push the veterans ahead of him . . . First team all-city at Shabazz High in Newark . . . A Liberal Arts student.

JOHN MILLER, junior. John saw occasional reserve action as an offensive tackle last year . . . He is considered a reliable performer and could win a job . . . Played three sports at East Stroudsburg High and three positions in football . . . On way to law school . . . A History major.

Benante

Morton

Salemi

BOB MORTON, senior. Bob is Rutgers top heavyweight wrestler and started Scarlet varsity career as a center . . . Was shifted to left tackle and was number one in the spot all last year . . . Largely unsung, won best pass protector awards for Lehigh and Lafayette games . . . Goes 230 with good speed . . . Credits a brother, Bill, with influencing him . . . A student of Economics.

DAVE NORTON, sophomore. A great physical specimen, Dave played four spots at Lakewood, O., High School and was impressive as a freshman . . . Developed well during spring . . . Might be delayed in move up by veterans ahead but almost assured of making a valuable contribution . . . Coin collector and a member of Glee Club . . . Majoring in Political Science.

JACK SALEMI, senior. A couple of shoulder operations have not dimmed Jack's desire and neither has the call to be a part-time fullback . . . Played fullback as frosh, was a part-time starter at tackle as a sophomore and played both ways against Princeton last year . . . Earned three hard hits, one offensive . . . Will wear a "70" this year, giving up his "32." An Agricultural Business major.

SCOTT SPENCER, senior. Avois crowds except on the football field and considers football a game of position, not power . . . A starter for a season and a half . . . Outdoorsman with interests in ecology, also a dog lover . . . Aims for consistency . . . Monster for Army game, best pass protector twice . . . A Landscape Architectural student.

GUARDS

DALE SIPOS, junior. Spent a year behind Scarlet premier guards Rinehimer and Tighe and could move into the starting offensive line at guard or tackle . . . Impressed in reserve roles, winning hard hit awards against Holy Cross and Army . . . Older brother, formerly a Princeton player . . . Studies in Liberal Arts curriculum.

ART THOMPSON, junior. Art shed lots of poundage in a Spartan effort but was held back by a knee injury . . . Got one starting assignment last year, against Army, and did play well, but missed last several weeks with knee problem . . . Held number one spot in spring camp . . . History major.

ANDY TIGHE, senior. (Picture P. 7). An All-East selection last year, Andy rates as one of best pulling guards around . . . Immediate starter as a sophomore and last year was member of his first winning football team . . . Was monster twice, four hard hit awards and four pass protector honors . . . Superlative performer . . . Sketches as a hobby . . . One of most respected on team . . . Majors in Landscape Architecture.

SAM TURNER, junior. A letterman two years ago, Sam missed last season after undergoing knee surgery . . . was a tackle, now plays guard . . . Plays the guitar but reluctant in public . . . Would like to teach English . . . Liberal Arts major.

CENTERS

BRUCE MONTIGNEY, junior. Bruce started the final three games as a sophomore following an injury to Vic Lapkowicz and is batting 1.000 with three high-scoring wins under his belt . . . Held on to the job in spring and was scheduled for a tonsillectomy shortly after . . . Feels he has overcome his difficulty with snaps for punts . . . Shuns publicity . . . An English major.

ANDY ZDOBVLAK, junior. A native of Gary, Ind., Andy is a Livingston student who caught the eyes of the coaches in the spring and quickly moved into the back-up spot because of his size and confidence . . . A former high school tackle and guard and an all-city performer, he first attended West Point . . . Makes a hobby of motorcycles . . . Majoring in U. S. History.

LINEBACKERS

STEVE ALLEN, senior. (Picture P. 7). A standout at defensive tackle for two seasons and team leader in tackles, Steve is probably one of the best at that spot in the East but is happy to get a chance at the post he once played in high school. Should be able to use his quickness and agility to good advantage . . . Took modern dance lessons in anticipation of change . . . Earned three monster awards last year . . . has five in all . . . Political Science student.

BOB DAVIES, junior. Scholar-athlete of the year and third team all-state at Long Branch High School, Bob saw most of his action last year as a replacement for the injured Andy Malekoff in the Lehigh game . . . Had an interception against Leopards . . . In Physical Education curriculum.

PAUL KRASNAVAGE, junior. Paul picked up one start last year and alternated at the job over the last three games . . . Slated as a starter in spring but injured knee kept him out of spring game . . . Interested in sanitation, an Environmental Science major.

MIKE PENYAK, senior. A fractured wrist kept Mike inactive for most of last season but impressive play last spring thrust him into consideration for a starting job . . . Looked good in spring game . . . Hits with authority . . . Intends to go to law school, a History major.

ED SESSION, junior. A veteran of Vietnam service, Ed joined the team last year knowing he had a lot of catching up to do . . . Spent most of the year learning and relearning and has made great strides . . . A New Brunswick High School grad . . . Fireplug type of build . . . Car hobbyist . . . Psychology major.

LINWOOD TAYLOR, sophomore. An All-America as a scholastic linebacker, Linny had knee troubles as a freshman and hopes that an operation has solved the problem . . . Might have been the third frosh on the varsity last year if not for the injury . . . Impressive in range and determination . . . Should see much action . . . Sings and plays piano . . . Majoring in Political Science.

JOHN WITKOWSKI, senior. John anchored a fine linebacking corps last year and picked up important fumble recoveries against Lehigh and Cornell . . . Strong and agile for vital defensive role at middle linebacker . . . Can take rough line play or do an excellent job as a pass defender . . . Economics student.

GARY WRIGHT, sophomore. Up from the freshman squad where he earned the reputation as a fine reader of offenses and a quick responder, Gary should give good support to the linebacking corps . . . Was all-area at Council Rock High School in Newton, Pa. . . . Has been a linebacker his whole career . . . Majors in Business.

QUARTERBACKS

STEVE HAVRAN, junior. A lefty with fine poise, Steve was held back in his development by a fractured collarbone in spring practice two years ago . . . Saw little service as a sophomore but is back in the signal-calling picture again . . . Scholastic versatility made him all-everything at Bridgewater East . . . A Business Administration major.

JOHN PICCIRILLO, junior. John proved he could move the team in reserve action last season, scored twice and completed five passes . . . Best performance against B.U. . . . Had a good spring game, hitting 10 of 15 aerials for 112 yards . . . Despite size, tough mentally and physically . . . Looks to improve punting ability . . . A varsity baseball outfielder . . . Studies Agricultural Business.

GARY SMOLYN, senior. Gary returns to the QB spot he shared as a sophomore when he excelled at the option and completed 21 of 40 passes for three TD's . . . Last year became defensive safety in a fluid change of position and had standout season . . . Had one interception and returned 16 punts for 213 yards and a TD . . . Proven versatility and leadership . . . Wants to attend law school . . . History major.

RUNNING BACKS

STEVE ARATA, junior. A junior college graduate last winter, Steve gained a midfield starting berth on the lacrosse team and helped produce a 9-4 season with 18 goals . . . Slated in spring as a fullback-linebacker . . . A Livingston student with impressive scholastic credentials . . . Majoring in Economics.

CURT EDWARDS, sophomore. Curt impressed as a frosh tailback before injuring his shoulder but was whole for the spring and could be back-up at tailback or fullback . . . Does great things at line of scrimmage . . . Top back in Bay Shore area . . . Karate, skydiving and horseback riding among interests . . . May go to dental school . . . Majoring in Agricultural Science at Cook College.

ANGELO FIGUEROA, junior. The leading threat of the Livingston Club Football team, Angelo has elusive style . . . Was given a full look in the spring and was second best rusher in the intrasquad game . . . Likes chess . . . Wants to be an F.B.I. man . . . An English and Psychology major.

PAUL MARCUS, junior. Paul had the honor of scoring the final 1972 Scarlet touchdown and did it in great style, going 54 yards on a pass reception to the Colgate six and bulling over from the one three plays later . . . Spot action last year . . . Likes scuba diving and plays guitar . . . Three sport standout in Connecticut high school . . . A student of Biological Sciences.

RON SHYCKO, senior. One of the speediest of the Scarlet, Ron will be a starter at one of three positions — flanker or at one of the running spots . . . Second best rusher last year with 106 carries and 432-yard net, also caught five passes . . . Scored four TD's . . . Speed could make him top receiving threat . . . Stopped lifting weights to be looser . . . Physical Education student.

WIDE RECEIVERS

BILL BOLASH, junior. Bill ran from tailback the last two years, but made most of chance as a flanker during spring practice . . . Late season action last year awarded him three TD's on 24 carries, also caught a 26-yarder . . . Looks slight but is tough . . . Role this year depends on placement of Shycko . . . Business Administration student.

JOHN CARLUCCI, senior. John came to the varsity as a defensive back but an injured knee prevented action as a sophomore . . . Converted to a wide receiver last year and was given some action as a fullback . . . Grabbed five passes for 65 yards in reserve roles . . . Gives steady performance and veteran back-up service . . . Majors in History.

BOB OLDT, senior. Bob alternated at defensive halfback last year and could appear there again or at split end . . . Would like to play offense . . . Had four different coaches at West Deptford . . . Hit .286 as varsity baseball second baseman but prefers football . . . Had an interception and returned three punts last year . . . In Business Administration curriculum.

Sweeney

Billock

Boone

Mazer

TOM SWEENEY, senior. Last season's second best receiver, Tom hopes to increase his receptions and become a better blocker . . . Has an interest in writing poetry . . . Grabbed 23 passes for 369 yards in 1972 but is remembered best for 97-yard return on opening Morgan State kickoff — took just 13 seconds for trip . . . Returned six others for good yardage . . . Hit .287 as baseball outfielder . . . Baseball captain-elect . . . English major.

JOE YACAGINSKY, junior. Though getting only limited action last year, Joe made dramatic progress and was the leading receiver in spring game, grabbing seven passes for 73 yards . . . Good hands and good patterns . . . Two catches last season for 51 yards . . . Physical Education student.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

FRED BILLOCK, senior. Snake-bit by injuries, Fred returned late last year, rebuilt his confidence and is high in enthusiasm for his new role as free safety . . . Came off bench for interception against Connecticut to set up winning TD on 25-yard return . . . Missed '71 season with broken arm sustained in opening game . . . Looks to career in bio-medical instrumentation . . . Electrical Engineering major.

LEN BOONE, senior. Len picked up Cronin Trophy as last year's most improved player . . . Tied for team lead with four interceptions and handled a couple of kickoff returns . . . Scheduled again for right corner where he does good job of coming up on runs . . . Great talker, also musician and composer with group called Piecineal . . . Future there looks bright . . . Lots of self pride . . . Monster award for Connecticut game . . . Majors in Political Science.

ANDY FARKAS, junior. A fine frosh quarterback, Andy was converted to a defensive back last year . . . Three-sport athlete in high school . . . Part of fine Scarlet depth in secondary . . . Expected to see lots of service . . . Played Jayvee baseball . . . Is married . . . Follows Physical Education curriculum.

ED JONES, junior. (Picture P. 7). Ed returns to the defensive corner after missing last season after shoulder operation . . . The former all-state tailback was a defensive sensation as a sophomore and won monster awards against Delaware, his first start, and Morgan . . . Returned 16 kickoffs for 315 yards . . . Hopes to regain form . . . Two-year letterman in track . . . Fine speed and balance . . . Ignored thoughts of return to offense . . . Liberal Arts major.

ANDY MAZER, junior. Andy was a two-way end at East Brunswick but was converted to the Knight spot last year where he had a good season . . . Now takes over the strong safety spot and wants to gain weight for the role . . . Directed a weight training program at alma mater in summer . . . Enthusiastic competitor . . . Early rock and roll fan . . . Two interceptions last year . . . Dreams of being a wide receiver . . . Wants to coach, a Physical Education student.

GEORGE McLAREN, junior. Son of ceramics professor and former Rutgers athlete, George was a two-way performer at Delaware Valley Regional . . . On small side, a tough competitor and determined defender . . . Will provide back-up help . . . Father a football letterman in '48-'49 . . . Biological Sciences student.

TONY PAWLICK, junior. With great natural skills, the former frosh QB quickly learned defense last year and tied for the team lead with four interceptions . . . Was given a try at fullback in spring but welcomed a return to the defense . . . Also misses quarterbacking but prefers to start . . . A student of Liberal Arts.

TOM WELTER, sophomore. A versatile player, Tom was a scholastic tight end and defensive back and ran for a while at fullback with the freshman team . . . Impressive in spring and moved into second spot at strong safety . . . A weightlifter . . . A Liberal Arts major.

LEHIGH'S PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 22
Lettermen Lost: 9

Quarterback Kim McQuilken, who already owns every Lehigh passing record and who has never thrown for fewer than 143 yards in a game, leads a veteran offense that returns 10 starters. Among them is McQuilken's favorite target, Bill Schlegel, who caught 59 passes last year. Seven defensive starters also return but Coach Fred Dunlap considered a new set-up in an effort to tighten up the corps which allowed 23 points a game last campaign.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Rutgers 41, Lehigh 13

Middlesex County Day was successful for the Scarlet as was the super effort both offensively and defensively. Bitter memories of three straight losses to the Engineers were erased as the Scarlet drove 50, 78 and 65 yards for its first three scores. "JJ" Jennings had his fourth consecutive 100-plus day. Leo Gasienica completed 11 aerials, eight to Bob Carney, and John Pesce hit field goals of 33 and 37 yards. McQuilken had 18 completions for 216 yards but the Scarlet intercepted him three times.

PRINCETON PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 24
Lettermen Lost: 21

New coach Bob Casciola's concern will be to fill gaps in the offensive and defensive fronts but he has a wealth of returning material in both backfields. One move may be to return last year's fullback Bob Harding back to his former tight end spot. A large list of quarterbacks is led by Jim Flynn and an even bigger group of running backs should please the new coach. Five lettermen return to the deep secondary as Casciola will make important choices on the lines among limited veterans and some promising sophomores.

PRINCETON'S 1973 SCHEDULE

Sept. 30—Rutgers
Oct. 6—at Columbia
Oct. 13—at Cornell

Nov. 3—Brown
Nov. 10—at Harvard
Nov. 17—Yale
Nov. 24—Dartmouth

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Princeton 7, Rutgers 6

The Tigers took nearly seven minutes in a 54-yard drive to score and convert in the final period, leaving less than a minute on the clock. Until the final Tiger possession, the Scarlet defense was superb. Rutgers scored on a 66-yard drive in the opening period but the extra point try was blocked. Princeton allowed the Scarlet only eight offensive plays over the final 29 minutes after Rutgers dominated the first half. Ron Shycko scored for the Scarlet, Howard Baetjer for the Tigers.

PRINCETON'S 1973 RECORD (3-5-1)

MASSACHUSETTS' PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 18
Lettermen Lost: 16

Rebuilding the offensive line and replacing three veteran linebackers are the big problems for Dick MacPherson whose Minutemen won the Yankee Conference and defeated UCal (Davis) in the Boardwalk Bowl last season. Tall (6-5) Peil Pennington, who threw for 1,733 yards on 107 completions, is one of the top QB's around and has one of his best receivers, Tim Berra, back to help. Defensive end Ed McAleney, linebacker Dennis Kiernan and cornerback Bob Parrott are fine performers on defense.

MASSACHUSETTS' 1973 SCHEDULE

LAST GAME (1967)

Massachusetts 30, Rutgers 7

Rutgers visited UMass and was mauled by the Redmen in the first game between the two schools. A gift TD in the opening minutes, following a fumble, put the Scarlet in a hole and another UMass score two minutes later covered it over. Greg Landry did what he has often so often, before and since to many teams — ran and passed his team to victory. The option master hit eight passes for 99 yards and added 125 rushing. Rutgers scored in the final period after an 80-yard drive on a short run by Don Riesett.

MASSACHUSETTS' 1972 RECORD (9-2)

LAFAYETTE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 21
Lettermen Lost: 14

Coach Neil Putnam wants to use his record-setting running back Tony Giglio "to maximum effectiveness" and would like to do it by strengthening the Leopard passing game. Tom Grip, who completed only one-third of his attempts last year, was given a shot at halfback in spring practice and a pair of juniors, Rich Muntz and Dan Kilmurray, were given a chance at QB along with two sophomores. It's from a large sophomore contingent that Putnam also hopes to fill other gaps. The offensive line has four returnees but lacks a tight end and the defense appears solid with veterans and newcomers.

LAFAYETTE'S 1973 SCHEDULE

Sept. 15—at Kings Point
Sept. 22—Colgate
Sept. 29—Penn
Oct. 6—C. W. Post

Oct. 20—Bucknell
Oct. 27—Maine
Nov. 3—at Gettysburg
Nov. 10—Drexel
Nov. 17—at Lehigh

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Rutgers 21, Lafayette 7

Rutgers took up nearly eight minutes to go 56 yards in 16 plays for its final touchdown, using ball control as its best tactic on a perfect football day, weatherwise, that saw each team come up with four interceptions. "JJ" Jennings and Tony Giglio did most of the running for their respective teams, "JJ" getting 153 yards, Giglio, 109. Tony Pawlik had two steals, Gary Smolyn and Dwight Lipscomb, one each.

LAFAYETTE'S 1972 RECORD (3-7)

Game No. 5 — University of Delaware

October 20, Rutgers Stadium

Team Colors—Blue and Gold

Nickname—Blue Hens

COACHING STAFF: Tubby Raymond, Michigan '50, eighth season; Paul Billy, Muhlenberg '57; Ted Gregory, Delaware '71; Jim Grube, Lebanon Valley '70; Ted Kempski, Delaware '63; Ed Maley, Delaware '57; Ron Rogerson, Maine '66; Irv Wisniewski, Michigan '50; Jim Flynn, Delaware '56.

DELAWARE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 30
Lettermen Lost: 23

Looking for an unprecedented third straight national College Division championship, the Hens have only one starter returning to the offensive line and one of the defensive front four. Three linebackers and two defensive backs are also gone. But no tears are needed. The offensive backfield, led by Scotty Reihm at quarterback and featuring Vern Roberts as the top runner, is top-notch and there are sizable lettermen in most positions. Several blue-chip sophomores could become starters as Delaware comes off an undefeated season.

DELAWARE'S 1973 SCHEDULE

Nov. 17—at Bucknell

LAST GAME, 1971

Delaware 48, Rutgers 7

It was Rutgers 800th football game and the number is the only significant thing about the contest for the Scarlet. Delaware scored seven times, four by passes, and completely dominated a team that was undergoing wholesale shifts in personnel. It was the third of six straight losses for the Scarlet. Rutgers only score came on a pass from Leo Casienica to Bill Donaldson at the end of the first period. Ed Jones debuted as a defensive back and had an outstanding game.

COLUMBIA PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 13
Lettermen Lost: 24

Frank Navarro was disappointed with the 3-5-1 record last year especially after the 6-3 surprise in 1971. He'd like to create another surprise this year but will have to do it without his record-breaking combo of QB Don Jackson and receiver Jesse Parks. The pass receiving corps is still strong with tight end Mike Telep but Navarro has to find a signal-caller. The defensive line and secondary are steady, the groups led respectively by Steve Noble and Ted Gregory, two of the best in the Ivy League. But the entire linebacking unit is gone. Navarro's estimate overall, is "promising, but green."

COLUMBIA'S

1973 SCHEDULE

Oct. 27—at Rutgers
Nov. 3—at Cornell
Nov. 10—Dartmouth
Nov. 17—Penn
Nov. 24—at Brown

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Rutgers 6, Columbia 3

The Scarlet and the Lions traded field goals in the first half of the contest played in cold, windy and muddy Baker Field. The QB's played cautiously and the game's one major mistake was decisive — a fumble by the Lion's Tom Parr which freshman Dwight Lipscomb found at the Columbia 42 early in the final period. Rutgers pushed to the four where John Pesce hit his second field goal, his 13th career 3-pointer. Jennings accounted for 127 of the 160 rushing yards on his 39 carries.

CONNECTICUT PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 25
Lettermen Lost: 19

Former B.U. coach Larry Naviaux installed a winged-T offense in spring practice and shifted several offensive starters to the defense for his debut season. Ray Tellier, who had a good day against the Scarlet last year, is gone and Naviaux will have to fill the signal-calling spot. Veteran backs Pat D'Onofrio, Lou Allen and Eric Torkelson should be able to handle the new system. The Huskie defense gave Rutgers a rough time last year and returns 13 lettermen to the unit.

CONNECTICUT'S 1973 SCHEDULE

Nov. 24—Holy Cross

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Rutgers 21, Connecticut 13

Rutgers scored the first and last times it had the ball to come up with its 400th football win in 104 years. Two late clutch plays, a two-point conversion attempt batted away by Tony Pawlik and an interception by Fred Billock which set up the final Scarlet score were the big plays. Pawlik's preserved a 14-13 lead with 3:30 left. "JJ" Jennings scored three times and gained 173 yards on 32 carries.

AIR FORCE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 25

Lettermen Lost: 21

With 25 returning lettermen, including eight starters on offense, the Falcons are seeking a sixth straight winning season. Returning are most of the players who made Air Force one of the top offensive teams in the nation last year with a 30.3 points per game average. Three-year vet quarterback Rich Haynie threw for 17 TD's in 1972 and accounted for 1,793 total yards. Frank Murphy led the Falcons in receiving with 31 catches for nearly 600 yards and seven TD's and fullback Bill Berry was the second-best rusher with a 4.4 average. Leading All-America prospects are offensive tackle Steve Hansen, who may see service at tight end; linebacker and leading tackler Jim Morris and defensive back Steve Heil.

(This is the first meeting between the Falcons and the Scarlet Knights.)

Notes on Rutgers-Air Force

The trip to Air Force is the longest ever made by a Rutgers football team. Also, Air Force is the Westernmost team ever meet by the Scarlet. Previous games against Nebraska (1920) and Louisiana State (1922) were in the Polo Grounds in New York City.

Many Rutgers R.O.T.C. graduates have been members of the Air Force Academy faculty. Among those in Colorado Springs at present is Col. Anthony Cillo, Rutgers Class of 1952, the Academy's assistant director of athletics.

HOLY CROSS PROSPECTS

Returning Lettermen: 36
Lettermen Lost: 14

Nine starters return to the Crusader defense including the huge tackles Lou Kobza and Bernie Galickas and backs Ty Blocker and All-America John Provost. Pete Vaas calls the signals again and can hand off to Steve Buchanan or pass to Joe Neary. Gone is fullback Joe Wilson, HC's all-time rushing leader. Nine of the 36 lettermen were freshmen, including Kobza, and many were juniors earning their first letters. The offensive line is led by All-New England tackle Chris Kordis.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Holy Cross 24, Rutgers 14

Joe Wilson carried three times for 80 yards and a TD in the game's first minute and the big back was unstoppable the rest of the way as he totalled 274 yards on 34 totes and scored two other times. The season's opening loss was the Scarlet's fifth straight defeat in Worcester in the 56-year-old series. Leo Gasienica had a big day for the Scarlet, netting 266 yards on 19 completions, scoring once and hitting Bob Carney on a 62-yard TD at the end.

(Band Day)

Team Color—Maroon

Nickname—Red Raiders

COACHING STAFF: Neil Wheelwright, Springfield '54, sixth season; John Paske, Colgate '66; Wallace Hood, Ohio Wesleyan '57; Bob Colbert, Maryland '70; Don Fudge, Princeton '63; Bob Deming.

SPORTS INFORMATION: Dave Leonard (Tel. 315-824-1000, Ext. 206)
(Home: 315-824-0971)

COLGATE PROSPECTS

Returning Lettlemen: 26
Lettlemen Lost: 9

The Red Raiders have the offensive horses to move the football again but must find the defensive combination to hold off opponent drives. Tom Parr operates the Wishbone efficiently and has smashed the school's total offense standard two years running. He and fullback Mark van Eeghen both have shots at the all-time Colgate rushing record. Jim Detmer leads the offensive line from a guard spot. On defense, the secondary is strong but despite nine returning defensive starters, the unit must prove itself.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Rutgers 43, Colgate 13

Rutgers won its sixth straight game over Colgate and closed the year with five straight wins even though stunned when the Red Raiders scored first. Wheelwright tried to surprise the Scarlet with a "no-huddle" offense, but the Scarlet took a 15-7 halftime lead on scores by Miller and Jennings. The Scarlet scored twice in each of the final two periods and set, or extended, nine school records in the rout. Jennings carried a record 40 times for 214 yards and Gasicenica completed 17 of 27 for 229 yards and two TD's.

TAMPA PROSPECTS

Lettermen Lost: 15

Returning Lettermen: 26

Independent Tampa was a surprise choice for the Tangerine Bowl and capped a strong 9-2 regular season mark with a 21-18 post season win. New coach Dennis Fryzel has QB Fred Solomon returning to head a backfield which he figures to be his main strength but has to rebuild his offensive line. John Matuszak is a big defensive loss but six veteran defenders return.

Rutgers Trophy Competition

Rutgers competes for three football trophies in games with traditional rivals.

The Centennial Trophy (above) was established in 1969, the 100th anniversary season for intercollegiate football, by the Classes of 1938 at Rutgers and Princeton in honor of the game which gave birth to intercollegiate football. The then presidents of their classes, William T. Galey of Princeton and John F. Anderson of Rutgers, participated in the original presentation. Since the trophy was entered into competition, each team has won twice.

The Colgate-Rutgers Alumni Cup likewise involves alumni of the colleges. Harry A. Taylor, Colgate '18, and George Underwood, Rutgers '25, donated the Cup in 1965, making it retroactive, however, to the start of the rivalry in 1933. Rutgers lost the first two games to Colgate after the Cup was established, but has won the prize the last six years.

Latest of the Trophies to be placed into competition is the Columbia-Rutgers Football Trophy in memory of Morris Goodkind. This handsome trophy was established in memory of his father, a Columbia, 1908, Engineering graduate, by Herbert Goodkind, Rutgers, 1938.
